Incident Summary: On September 3, 2019 at approximately 11:49 AM, officers were dispatched to the area of 336 South Ashburton Road on a shooting with several involved. Officers located three victims, later identified as Montrell Crawford, Charles Greer, and Montrell Crawford. All three were suffering from gunshot wounds. Witnesses at the scene stated that out of an argument concerning a parking spot, the men began firing handguns at each other. All three were transported to local area hospitals for treatment, and were unable to be interviewed due to their injuries. Mr. Crawford and Mr. Greer were listed in serious but stable condition, and Mr. Williams is listed in critical but stable condition. The investigation continues.

Anyone with additional information regarding this incident is asked to contact Columbus Police Assault Detective Steven Kaethow at 614-645-4740, or the Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-8477.
